Your life is a puzzle. How you put that puzzle together is important at Fort Wayne Bible College . . .

People play an important part in your life . . .

Top: In the snack shop excitement is the word after another basketball victory for B.C.
Middle: Solving the puzzle of the card catalog is Sandy Klopfenstein.
Bottom: "What other books do you have on China, Mrs. Beitler?" asks Ernie Geefay.

They help to develop your own unique personality . .

Baseball is one of the many outlets for B.C. boys.

"Let me at them" cry Lenny Myers and Dick Foust.

Throughout the year one could find Bruce Grambling meditating on life's problems.

There is always an open door for the student at Dr. Gerig's office.

Dr. Gerig leads us and guides us in our quest for completion of that puzzle . . .

Dr. Gerig draws upon a wealth of knowledge to guide us.

Days are always started with devotions at Dr. Gerig's home.

These are many places which fit into life's puzzle . . .

Top Left: Weibke House
Top Right: Founders Memorial Building
Middle: President Gerig's House
Bottom: Leightner Hall

Schultz Hall

Bethany Hall

and a piece of this puzzle is how we live and respond to these places . . .

Foster Park

Dr. Warner prepares another test.

Dr. Warner is always willing to help guide us in our courses.

Education is an important part of the student's life at Fort Wayne Bible College. Each course guides us further along life's road . . .

As Dean of Education he instructs the professors in performing their various tasks.

It was another good year for the Bloodmobile. This year's committee was headed by Wayne Steiner.

Our interaction with our community and each other results in further development of self . . .

The Chorale this year toured through Ohio and Indiana for one week.

This year the student association sponsored the New Folk. The results were very favorable. There were about twenty-two hundred in attendance.

"Concerto of Spring" was the theme of the annual spring banquet. Flo Price was the guest and special music for the dinner.

Life's puzzle finds partial completion in our ability to support and participate in athletics . . .

"Where's the ball?" asks Don Leach, Mick Mills, and Rog Ringenberg.

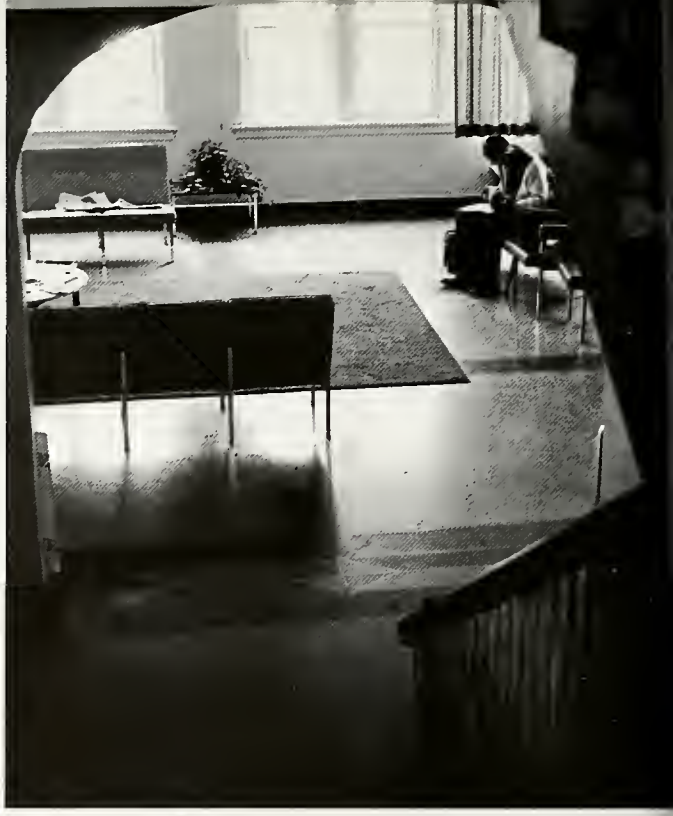
Fort Wayne Ambassadors

Fort Wayne's Baseball team had the second best season in the history of the school.

We must always practice our tennis for Coach. Right Janet?

It was a rough year for Coach Morley.

Finding yourself is a basic part of life's puzzle. Fort Wayne Bible College places the student in a position to find himself . . .



Bethany is a good place to catch up on homework.

Meditation in the chapel at First Church helps keep the student in touch with God.

Another busy day at the Snack Shop for Tom Rust.

Students find that Max Wanner, Assistant Dean of Men, is always willing to lend a listening ear, and offer help.

Willing to share your problem is Elaine Gregorieff.

There is always time to think about life and its problems.

Christ is the completion of life's puzzle at Fort Wayne Bible College.

Involvement in Academics . . .

One of the essentials of the Christian faith is involvement — involvement with family, involvement with friends, and involvement with God. Fort Wayne Bible College offers an opportunity for students to get involved with books and teachers and to prepare themselves for involvement in life.

Involvement in Christian Service . . .

We have many students involved in Christian service assignments and in gospel teams. It has been an exciting year including many tours, to as far away as Jamaica.

Royal Heirs

Gospel Lites

From left to right: Beverly Myers, Ginger League, Linda Retter.

The many gospel teams of the Christian Service Department have traveled to churches in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan to sing and testify of their love for Christ.

Laud-Aires

Kingsmen

Ambassadors

Melody-Aires

The Collegians traveled around the midwest and to Jamaica this year to spread the gospel through song. This summer they will take a nationwide tour from California to the east coast. From left to right: Terry Myers, Reg Converse, Jay Platte, Jerry Noble, Doug Barcalow, David Miller, Jerry Rupp, Dick Armstrong, Larry Salsburey, Pamela Carey, Sue Laymon, Carol Roth, Shirley Mertz, Sandy Klopfenstein, Jackie Weber, Lowena Gerig, Gaye Morand, Peggy Sudenga, Miss Joy Gerig.

Collegians bow for prayer before their performance.

The Preparation for Christian Service Assignments

Bev Meyers finds relief from the hectic pace set by gospel teams.

Involvement in Activities . . .

Fort Wayne Bible College offers many activities for the development of the total individual: social, physical, mental, and spiritual.

Life With

Far Left: As fair workers plan their booths, Donna Blum exclaims, "Is that a cow?" Many students began months in advance to come up with ideas such as milking this paper mache cow.
Middle Left: Students were amazed at the dirt in Schultz Hall as they fulfilled their cleaning duties Friday morning.
Middle Right: "Well, I used to know how this worked," stuttered Roger Ringenberg, Treasurer of Youth Conference, as he prepares Bethany Lounge for registration.
Far Right: "Welcome to Youth Conference," was expressed to everyone of the 649 conferees as they moved swiftly through the registration line.

Youth

"Miss Gerig, does this go here?" asks Dick Foust, Chairman of Youth Conference. Miss Gerig, an advisor of Youth Conference, assists in straightening out many details involved in the success of Youth Conference.

Each steering committee member has the responsibility of directing a certain portion of Youth Conference weekend. Front Row: Jackie Weber, Music Chairman; Jan Larkins, Co-Chairman; Linda Carlson, Program Chairman; Dick Foust, Chairman; Roger Ringenberg, Treasurer; and Lynn Doerschuk, Art Chairman.

DIMENSION

"Life with a Purpose and Life with a Goal" written by Jerry Noble was sung by Collegians while the conferees learned it.

Folk singing rounded out Friday evening fun.

Conference '68

Bob Stone, director of VCY in Detroit, Mich. and speaker for the weekend, talks to the conferees on their personal relationship with Christ.

"Are you sure you don't need more?"

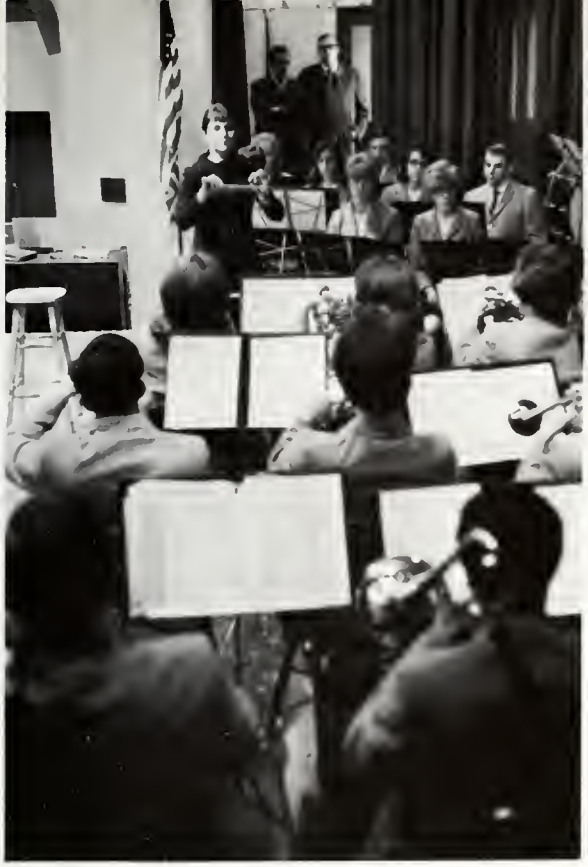
"Say what you mean and mean what you say!"

"Ouch, why do you have to throw it so hard?"

Youth

"The time is Now Young America!"

"Has anyone seen my tricycle?"



Music—a major part of FWBC life.

"Boy, that other piece looks more delicious."

Conference '68

On Sunday patriotism rang throughout the chapel as Collegians sang out with "America"

"Now what do we do with them?"

'What In The World Is Going On?'

Missionary Conference

Speaking at Missionary Conference this year was the Rev. Kenn W. Opperman, minister at the Avenue Road Church, Toronto, Canada. He had opportunity to talk personally with students as well as speaking in the services on "The Bible Basis of Missions".

"What in the world is going on?" was the topic of a panel discussion by Rev. Bertsche, Rev. Opperman, and Dr. Warner. They answered questions from students concerning missions and the missionary.

In talking about his coffee house ministry Rev. Opperman said that if he did not see a change in a hippie's life after he had made a decision for Christ then he has found that he had not had a real experience with Christ.

Spiritual Emphasis

First Semester

"The kids here are fantastic. You have here on this campus the potential to shake this world." These are the words of Dr. John H. Boswell, executive director of the Sacramento Valley Youth for Christ. Dr. Boswell was the speaker for the first semester Spiritual Emphasis Week, September 26-29.

According to Dr. Boswell the ability of today's teen to think enables him to "get down to business with God" and experience the reality and practicality of true Christian living and witnessing. He felt that this particularly applied to the Bible College campus.

Second Semester

Soft spoken and easy going Rev. Donald A. Miller, pastor of Hope Congregational Church of St. Louis, was guest speaker for second semester Spiritual Emphasis Week beginning January 30.

Mr. Miller studied at Taylor University and at Winona Lake School of Theology. He is also a graduate of Nyack Missionary College.

After completing his college training, Mr. Miller served pastorates in New York and for the past twelve years in Syracuse, New York.

"In the Shepherd's Steps"

Christian Ministries Retreat

"Time alone to find out more about yourself and God" was a frequent comment made as students returned from CMR this year. "In the Shepherd's Steps" under the leadership of Lois Haycock proved to be a time of learning to follow the Shepherd.

Singing and game time preceded by devotions and discussion groups filled most of Saturday morning. Bill Steiner, Dick Armstrong, and Dan Hanes lead the group in some folk songs after lunch. (Right)

After an afternoon of recreation, everyone spruced up for the Banquet and evening service Saturday night.

Student Missionary Fellowship

Student Missionary Fellowship this year has attempted to inform students of the growing needs of missions around the world. This task has been accomplished through informative pamphlets, bi-weekly meetings, and weekly prayer meetings. The Student Missionary Fellowship project this year was the support of the Ben Cat Orphanage. Since the opening last August under the auspices of a national branch of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Ben Cat Orphanage offers hope to thirty-nine young victims of the war in Vietnam.

Campus Crusade for Christ

Leading Campus Crusade for Christ Club in its first year was a committee composed of Darrel Simon, Jack Oxenrider, Jane Amstutz, Dan Hanes, Kay Hunter, and Roger Ringenberg. As small groups of four and five banded together in action groups, the campus saw the spiritual impact that the club had on the students.

Above: Energetic and vital young Christians describe the New Folk as Campus Crusade for Christ brought them to the Coliseum for a performance which presented Christ as the answer.
Right: Transforming the cafeteria into a coffee house with low tables and candles, Campus Crusade for Christ presented the purposes and goals for the club.

Light Tower

The Light Tower had a good year. It was mixed with hard work and long nights.

Music Club

Officiating Music Club affairs this year were Sharon Osborne, Juanita Young, Dottie Murray, and Nancy Kyrk. Their project this year was to raise enough money through a series of three films to buy the school a new cello.

Many Music Club members actively participate in music groups of the school. (Below and Right)

Messiah

Guest soloists for FWBC's annual presentation of Handel's Messiah, on Sunday, December 10, 1967, were Thomas Zehr, tenor, Anita Lamos, alto, and Pauline Tweed, soprano. (Not pictured is James Clauser, baritone.) The eighty voice Oratorio Chorus and eighteen piece Orchestra was conducted by Mr. Jay D. Platte.

Mr. Jay D. Platte, director of the Chorale, the Oratorio Chorus and the Singing Collegians, is a senior studying toward the Bachelor of Music Education degree. Coming from Indianapolis, Mr. Platte traveled to Europe and Africa with a Youth for Christ Teen Team before coming to Fort Wayne Bible College. He was a member of the Ambassadors Quartet during his freshman and sophomore years, traveling from coast to coast during the summer of 1965. Two years ago he became director of the Singing Collegians who recently represented the college at the 8th International Congress of Youth for Christ in Jamaica. Mr. Platte has composed or arranged a number of hymns and gospel songs.

Involvement in Activities . . .

This has been a busy year for all "B.C." students. So far this year we have been involved in . . .

Musical Concerts

We were involved with the preparation and followup for the New Folk.

The Women's Philharmonic String Quartet with Judy Hakes.

Christmas Banquet

Many of us attended the Christmas Dinner held here in our Cafeteria.

Then we went to the Chapel for an entertaining program.

Spring Banquet

We were involved in our Spring Banquet at the Cutter's Chalet.

Many of our faculty were there also.

Dr. Warner told many funny (?) stories that night.

The Servant in the House

This was Fort Wayne Bible College's first attempt at theater in the round and it was a huge success. Extra chairs had to be set up to accommodate the large crowd. We even got a favorable review in the News-Sentinel. This is a scene in the play between Tom Lehman and Karen Goins.

Student Recital

Phyllis Bush gives her last recital at F.W.B.C.

Social Service

This year 100 students showed up at the First Missionary Church to give blood to the Red Cross. This is Betty Mancinelli giving her pint of blood.

Social Life

Well, it looks as if we have stumbled on some of the fellows studying diligently in Kampus Korner. Somehow it does not appear to be sinking in.

Whatever is going on behind the doors at Lexington must be interesting. Does someone have a new boyfriend?

Mr. Heck is always willing to help.

When social activities are over there is still plenty to do.

It is registration time again.

Remember This?

The coffee hour talks in the Snack Shop.

Those wonderful student council meetings at 6:30 in the morning.

"Are there any more pretzels left?" asks Doug Barcalow.

The annual ordeal of giving blood. Good luck next year Dr. Wes.

Our surging Ambassadors came through with a good season.

Involved With the Seniors . . .

Our ultimate goal has been achieved

THE SENIOR CLASS
ADVISOR . . .
Dr. Wes

He has helped the class with many of its important decisions. He has also provided lots of fun and laughs. As seniors we will never forget the fun that we had with him on Senior Sneak Day.

THANK YOU, DR. WES!

THE BACCALAUREATE SPEAKER . . .
The Rev. Robert C. Stubhar

The Senior Class had the honor to elect him as Baccalaureate speaker. He is a man whom we all know and like.

The Commencement speaker . . .

DR. CARL HENRY

We as a class feel very honored to have Dr. Henry speak to us on one of the most important days of our lives.
